Mr J. Ramsay MacDonald, M.P., First Labour Prime Minister, at the Unveiling Ceremony of the Memorial to the late J. W. Herald in Arbroath Public Library.

Arbroath During 1924.

The year that has now just drawn to a close has not been marked by any event of more than local interest as have the years immediately preceding it. The backwash of the war and the resultant industrial depression has been very keenly felt in our town, and, as is always the case, when trade is not brisk, every section of communal life reflects that condition. If one were to be asked to name the most memorable event one might probably recall the visit on September 9th of the Premier, Mr J. Ramsay Macdonald, to unveil a memorial in the Public Library to the late J. W. Herald, the Arbroath artist. The Premier's visit which synchronised with his visit to Dundee to receive the honour of the freedom of that city, was not attended by any big civic programme, the time at his disposal being necessarily short, but very widespread interest was taken in the proceedings by all classes in the community. Mr Ramsay MacDonald paid a fine tribute to the memory of one who was an artist in the highest sense of the word, and the visit of Britain's first Labour Prime Minister gave a touch of wider importance to the ceremony which was not lost upon the admirers of Herald's genius who were responsible for the erection of the memorial. The Memorial, which takes the form of a mural tablet with bronze relief portrait of the artist, is placed on the wall at the head of the central staircase, and is a very creditable piece of work. The architect of the memorial was Mr C. G. Soutar, Dundee, and the sculptor - Mr Banbury.

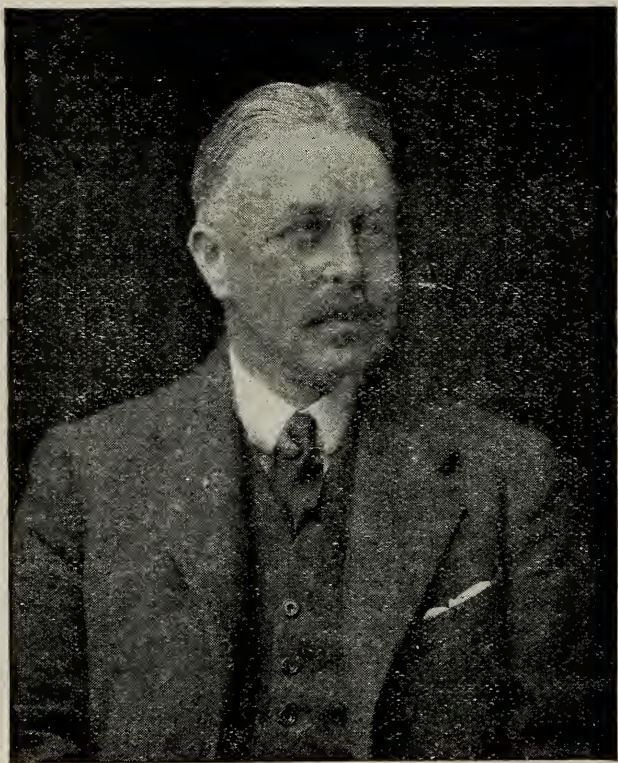

Passing of Sir F. Webster.

An event which was in itself memorable, and especially so in the almost dramatic circumstances of its occurrence was the passing away in February 5 on his way south for a sojourn in Madeira, of Sir Francis Webster of Ashbrook, head of the firm of Messrs Francis Webster & Sons, manufacturers, Alma and Netherward Works. On February 1st, Sir Francis, on the occasion of his business jubilee entertained a great gathering of his workers in the hall which his firm generously gifted to the town several years ago. At that memorable gathering Sir Francis, surrounded by members of his family, those associated with him in the conduct of the business, and by the hundreds of workers, men and women, young and old, appeared to be in wonderfully good health, as he certainly was in excellent spirits. On the following Monday night he left with his daughter and his brother, Mr W. W. Webster, for the south. On the journey to London shortly after crossing the Border, Sir Francis was seized with illness and passed away before Newcastle was reached. The remains were brought to Arbroath and were interred in Arbriolot Churchyard, where other members of the family rest. The tragic occurrence created a profound feeling of regret in the town with which Sir Francis was so intimately associated and with whose development and welfare he and his forbears had had so much to do. Sir Francis was a fine type of business man, alert, confident, and thoroughly well versed in all the phases of buying raw material and the manufacture and sale of the textile fabrics for which his firm were famous all the world over.

A Public-Spirited Citizen.

Of perhaps, even deeper concern to the people of Arbroath was, however, the fact that Sir Francis was far more than merely a successful and progressive business man. He was keenly interested in every one of his large company of workers, and the ability to keep these workers fully employed was ever his aim, and this being so his presence will be missed in Arbroath for many a day. Sir Francis, in spite of the many calls of his business took his share of public work in his native town, having served for a term on both the Town Council and the School Board. But it is in connection with the cause of Liberalism in the Montrose Burghs that he took the most prominent part. He was a staunch Liberal of the old school, with strong convictions and the courage to express them without fear or favour. As his host on many occasions during his representation of the Montrose Burghs, Sir Francis enjoyed the personal friendship of the late Lord Morley to the end of his life, and was one of the last to whom the great statesman wrote politically. Sir Francis Webster was also deeply interested in the work of the Infirmary and held the position of Chairman of Directors up to the time of his death.

Political Events.

Politically the year has been eventful. It has witnessed the defeat of the first Labour Government within nine months of its taking office, and the coming into power with a sweeping majority of a Conservative Government. The probability of another early appeal to the country was apparent from the moment the Labour Government took office, and in all the constituencies the three parties made it their business to keep in close touch with prospective candidates.

In the Montrose Burghs the intimation by Mr Leng Sturrock, the sitting member, that he would not again seek nomination in the event of an election laid on the Liberal Associations in the Burgh the necessity of selecting a prospective candidate. Several names were considered by the members, and eventually the choice fell upon Sir Robt. Hutchison, formerly Liberal M.P. for the Kirkcaldy Burghs, who, on the invitation of the Burghs Central Liberal Executive agreed to meet the members at Montrose and discuss the situation. Sir Robert's visit took place in April, and after a full and frank discussion with the delegates, Sir Robert was unanimously elected to represent the Liberal interests in the Burghs. Sir Robert addressed his first meeting in Arbroath on 16th May, on which occasion in the Webster Memorial Hall he received an encouraging welcome, and delivered a speech which left a most favourable impression on his hearers. An impression which subsequent visits only helped to deepen.

In the county the Unionist supporters were in somewhat similar case owing to the withdrawal of Captain W. T. Shaw, ex-M.P., and prospective Unionist candidate. Captain Shaw was presented with handsome gifts from his friends and former constituents in the county at the beginning of March, at an influential meeting held in Hill St. Masonic Hall. Early in May, Capt. Harry Hope was adopted as Unionist candidate for the county constituency.

The General Election.

In October Parliament was prorogued and the date of the General Election was fixed for 31st October. The campaign was therefore a short one, and so far as the Burghs and County were concerned was conducted with the utmost decorum on all sides. Though some talk had taken place during the summer regarding the feasibility of running a Conservative candidate, it was agreed when the General Election was definitely fixed that the Conservative interests would be best served by their upholders joining issues with the Liberals and supporting Sir Robert Hutchison. The champion of the Socialist cause was Mr T. Barron, who was invited to contest the Burghs following the intimation of the withdrawal of Mr John Carnegie who had on two previous occasions contested the seat. Mr Barron proved himself an able and very honourable opponent, though it was apparent all through that the Liberal traditions of the Burghs had still a strong hold. The result of the election in the Montrose Burghs was:—

Sir R. Hutchison, ...	9226
Mr T. Barron (Socialist),	6914

Majority, ... 2312

Liberal majority at last Election—1685.

The issue in the county was more uncertain, owing to the entrance for the first time in that constituency of a Socialist candidate, and the defeat of the sitting member, Mr James Falconer, was hardly in the nature of a surprise to his friends and supporters. The Socialist candidate, Mr Gallie, secured a big vote, which was no doubt largely responsible for the reversal of the political representation of Forfarshire. The figures were:—

Town Council Matters.

During the year the Town Council have been troubled with many minor affairs, but so far as large and important undertakings are concerned, they have been marking time. Great schemes have been absent from their agenda. Nevertheless, there have been many happenings of note. A number of difficult problems have presented themselves, and regrettable as it is to record, just as a good year's work was drawing to a close a sensational scandal in one of the departments under the Council's jurisprudence, was disclosed. This, as all other matters, was tactfully handled under the skilful guidance of Provost Anderson, and those who were at fault were dealt with accordingly. The Council also paid for its experience.

An event of considerable interest in connection with the bonded debt took place when the last instalment of the expense involved in the working up of the Nolt Loan water scheme fell to be met. Not until Treasurer Robertson mentioned the matter when submitting the estimates for the year in June did many people realise that for the past twenty years they had been paying off the debt on the Nolt Loan scheme. When the Noran scheme was started there was a debt on the Nolt Loan scheme of over £12,000.

Our Streets and Roads.

The maintenance of streets and roads within the Burgh is becoming an increasingly difficult problem, many of the roadways being, in their present state, entirely unsuited for the heavy motor traffic of the present day. In this connection a new system of tar-spraying and re-surfacing was tried on the Class I. roads in the Burgh, including the Montrose Road, Dundee Road, and Keptie Road, and Class II. roads such as Addison Place, Stobcross, High Road Bridge, Bog Lane, and part of Lochland Street. Work has also been carried out on other roads. The whole question of roadways calls for serious consideration and it is the recommendation of the Streets Committee that this question be gone into in good time prior to the submission of next year's annual estimates. More money will be required to be spent on classified roads. Tar-spraying and metal chipping is not the only thing that is required to put them in the condition required for present-day traffic.

Reduction in Gas Prices.

In June the Gas Committee were in the fortunate position to report that the gross profit on the year's workings was (subject to audit) £9,489, making the total amount available £9,786. The total sum required for interest, annuities, sinking fund, contingency, Income Tax, and Harbour was £9,395, leaving a balance of £391 to carry forward for next year's workings. The Committee were again able to recommend a reduction in the price of gas to ordinary consumers. The price for 1922-23 was 3/9 for 1,000 feet to ordinary consumers; in 1923-24 3/4 per 1,000 feet and this year the price recommended was 8.6d per therm for ordinary consumers and 0.4d per therm for slot consumers, which is equivalent to 3/2.7 and 3/6.3 per 1,000 feet respectively. It was amazing to find that the gas made and sold during the year had increased over the previous year's output, notwithstanding the fact that the Arbroath Electric Light Co. were also making great progress. The gas made during the year ended 15th May, 1924, was 179,482,000 cubic feet, an increase of 2,065,000 cubic feet over the output of the previous year. The Convener, his Committee and the Gas Manager are to be congratulated on the success of their year's work.

The Slaughter-House Scandal.

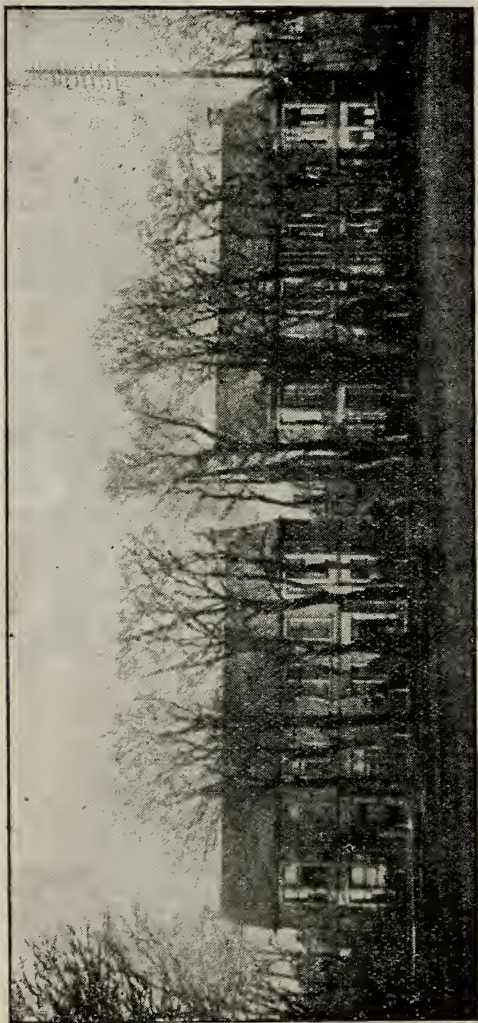

The scandal already referred to was brought to light following the prosecution of two local butchers in the Police Court for exposing for sale the carcase of an animal which was diseased and unfit for human consumption. In the course of the proceedings it was revealed that two men employed at the Slaughter House had entered into an arrangement to sell a pig which they knew to be condemned and unfit for the food of man. Fines amounting in all to £170 were imposed in connection with the case, the butchers being fined £100 and £50 respectively for exposing the meat for sale. The Town Council appointed a special committee to inquire into the administration of the Slaughter House, and into the whole facts and circumstances regarding the irregularities. In their report they stated—"The Committee feel that the recent irregularities were due to the fault of the Town Council themselves, in failing to carry out their statutory obligations under the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, and in failing to specify clearly the duties of the respective officials employed in connection with the slaughter-house. They are further of opinion that a previous Town Council should never have delegated their powers in any way to the Master Butchers' Association."

The Committee also expressed themselves as being satisfied that the conditions of appointment of the superintendent at the slaughter-house would sufficiently obviate any likelihood of a recurrence of any such irregularities.

Financial Outlook—Municipal Rates.

The outlook at the end of the financial year, 1923-24, was by no means bright. While finding it impossible to recommend a reduction in the local rates, which would be the first thing to enable local trade and the town as a whole to get out of the present backwater of depression, Treasurer Robertson did the next best thing and proposed that the rates to be levied for the year 1924-25 should remain at the previous year's figure, namely 8/8 in the £1. At the same time the Treasurer pointed out that it was with difficulty that they were enabled to continue the assessments at the same figure in the previous year on account of the heavy expenditure on the harbour dredging and the prolonged epidemic of scarlet fever and diphtheria. It was fully anticipated that a reduction of 4d on the £1 on the road assessments would be achieved this year, but the promotion of unemployment schemes more than swallowed up this benefit. During the year there have been various items of general expenditure which could not be foreseen, such as the improving of Lochland Street from Rossie Street to Stobcross, costing £160; and the purchase of the George Hotel which cost £1,200. Various schemes for the relief of unemployment in the town were instituted, namely, the improvement of the Commons, lighting extensions, and improvements of footways. Altogether a sum of £14,000 has been expended on road schemes and such like during the past three or four years. The rates for the year were agreed upon as follows:—

Other Municipal Matters.

The conspicuous success of the public tennis courts laid out at the Cannon Common is worthy of comment. They have proved a great attraction and were so largely in demand during the summer months that the question of laying additional courts for those resident on the east side of the town was raised when the retiring Councillors met their constituents in November. It is expected that this matter will be brought before the Council shortly. The income from the tennis courts for the first year was £209 as against an upkeep cost of £154. The Town Council in September resolved to purchase a new weighbridge at a cost of £347 10/- after allowing £20 for the old machine. This new machine has now been laid and has a weighing capacity of 20 tons. A movement was set afoot in September by residents in Bog Lane to have the name of that street changed to "Rosebank Road." The matter was brought before the Council on two occasions by Bailie Chapel, who represented the feeling of those adverse to the change, but it was finally agreed to change the name to "Grant Road." The new dredger "Fairport" which was acquired by the Town Council made its trial trip in February and passed through the necessary tests satisfactorily. The vessel's mud-well has a capacity of about eighty tons and is capable of working to a depth of 30 feet. During operations about 18,000 tons of dredgings have been removed from the harbour basin.

Changes During the Year.

Only one change has taken place in the personnel of the Council during the year. Ex-Bailie Mason resigned in January and was succeeded by Mr R. Kinnear who had previous experience on the Council.

Capt. M'Glashan, appointed Harbourmaster.

Mr R. Kinnear re-elected to Town Council.

Mr D. D. Calder, P.G. Secretary,

At the November elections six Councillors were due to retire and all were returned unopposed. They were:—Dean of Guild Macdonald and Councillor Corsar (High St. and Millgate Ward); Treasurer Judge Robertson and Councillor Kinnear (Lochlands and Keptie Ward); and Bailie Chapel and Councillor Souttar, representatives of Abbey and Guthrie Port Ward.

Within the space of a few months two important officials resigned office. Captain J. S. Edward retired from the position of Harbourmaster which he held for many years in August on account of health reasons and was succeeded by Captain George M'Glashan, Galea, Arbirlot Road. Mr D. H. Shaw, Burgh Surveyor and Sanitary Inspector received an appointment in a similar capacity under the Saltcoats Town Council after four years' service in Arbroath. His successor has not yet been appointed.

Parish Council's Trying Year.

Plenty of food for gossip has been found in the doings of the Parish Council during the year. For several weeks during the summer months—the trouble started in May—the Parish Councillors were engaged on what many were pleased to term the "Poorhouse Scandal," which terminated in the resignation of Mr and Mrs Blaikie, the governor and matron. The first inklings of matters not being just as they should be at the Poorhouse were heard at the May meeting of the Parish Council, when Mr W. J. Anckorn made a lengthy statement regarding a meeting of the Poorhouse Committee which "ended in a hurry-burry," and at which it was alleged the Governor addressed himself in "unparliamentary language" to Mr Anckorn. At that meeting it was remitted to the House Committee to inquire into the whole matter. There were many sensational disclosures as a result of that inquiry and the case was the chief topic of conversation in the town at the time. The Committee held three special meetings, at which ill-treatment of inmates and the use of bad and harsh language by the matron on several occasions was alleged. The allegations made also involved neglect of duty on the part of the governor and matron, that the staff were ordered to carry out duties outwith the scope of their employment and visits by personal friends of the governor and matron who entertained them to teas and dinners at the expense of the house, and at the same time created extra work for the staff. By 7 votes to 6 the Committee agreed to recommend that the governor and matron be asked to resign. At the Council meeting which followed Mr Anckorn moved the adoption of the recommendation and was seconded by Mr C. M'Callum. Mr H. Victor Neill, the Chairman of the Council, put forward an amendment to the effect that a Board of Health inquiry be made into the administration of the Poorhouse and into the allegations made to the Committee at their inquiries, and that the Council suspend judgment until the Board's report was received. This was seconded by Mr W. Beattie, but the recommendation of the Committee was adopted by 13 votes to 10.

Officials' Opinion.

Later, it was intimated that Mr Mackay, General Superintendent of Poor, and Mr Henderson of the Poor Law Department of the Scottish Board of Health had been instructed to inquire into the whole question of the administration of the Poorhouse, and at the same meeting a communication was received from Messrs Clark, Oliver,

Dewar & Webster, which stated—“If your Council are determined to proceed without awaiting the results of the inquiry our clients (the governor and matron), recognising the inevitable, but without prejudice to their pleas and rights against your Council or any of the individual members, authorise us to tender, as we now do, their resignations, to take effect one month from this date, rather than they should be dismissed.” The last of this regrettable case was heard when the Board of Health report, which first appeared in detail in the columns of the “Arbroath Herald,” was submitted to the Parish Council. The Board of Health representatives were of the opinion that the publicity given to the inquiry by the House Committee was out of proportion to the issues involved and had done unmerited harm to the subjects of the inquiry. Their report concluded as follows:—Though the governor and matron do not in our opinion merit the summary treatment that has been accorded to them, the general effect of the way in which the House Committee and Parish Council have dealt with the complaints will be to make it very difficult for them to obtain other employment. This is particularly regrettable in the case of the governor who bears an honourable military record and against whom the only complaints are irregularities that had merely to be pointed out to be rectified. We regret to have formed the opinion that the only possible explanation of the vindictive manner in which the House Committee’s enquiry was pursued or of the extreme harshness of the finding was that the majority of the House Committee had resolved to dismiss the Governor and Matron before beginning their enquiry. The Committee deliberately refrained from taking evidence from the experienced Medical Officer of the Poorhouse, who had a general charge over the welfare of every inmate, or from satisfied officials. On the other hand they gave the morbid gossip of the kitchen the dignity of serious evidence

On 8th July, Mr and Mrs C. G. Hogland, the Stables, Rosely, Arbroath, were appointed governor and matron.

Estimates and Rates.

At the July meeting, Mr W. J. Anckorn, Convener of the Finance Committee, was in the happy position to state that the amount required this year was £9,950 as compared with £11,021 from the previous year. A big reduction was effected in the amount estimated for the relief of able-bodied poor. Last year the Council provided £3,100 and this year the estimate was £2,500, a reduction of £600. It was agreed to make a reduction this year on the poor rate and it was decided to fix the rate at 1/8 for the current year, this being a reduction of 2½d. It was agreed to levy 10d on owners and 10d on occupiers.

Following the receipt of a communication from the local Unemployment Relief Committee requesting them to “favourably consider the question of increasing the scale of relief to able-bodied poor and especially to the dependents of school age and under,” the Parish Council in March revised the scale as follows:—Children under 16 years of age, 3/6; above 16 years of age, 7/6. The scale was formerly 2/6 and 6/- per week respectively. In October another plea was put forward to increase the scale of relief to able-bodied poor. The matter was remitted to the Relieving Committee for full consideration and on their recommendation the Parish Council decided by 17 votes to five to make no change in the scale.

Other Parish Council Items.

The Rev. A. E. Mileman succeeded the Rev. James Hume as Chaplain at the Poorhouse on the latter's leaving Arbroath to fill the pastorate of Thornhill Congregational Church, Dumfriesshire. The Inspector was granted an increase of £20 on his salary in September.

At their December meeting the Council agreed unanimously to change the name "Poorhouse" to "Rosebank Home" on the recommendation of the House Committee.

Only one new face appeared at the Council table during the year. On account of his taking up residence in Glasgow Mr Thomas Howie had to resign and was succeeded by Mr Thos Ramsay, St Vigeans.

Educational Affairs.

The institution of the larger administrative area under the 1920 Education Act, has certainly been responsible for diminished interest on the part of ratepayers in the subject of education in general. The meetings of the Education Authority held at Forfar do not arouse the keen local feeling of the former state of matters, and in any case the powers even of elected representatives are so circumscribed and tied down that there is little encouragement for any display of public interest.

The matters under discussion by the County Authority have been to a large extent mainly concerned with staffing and the accommodation of pupils. So far as Arbroath is concerned the whole situation seems to be in as unsettled a condition as it was last year, and little prospect of the institution of a really consistent policy.

At the last meeting of the Authority for the year plans were passed and contracts fixed for the erection of a new engineering shop for the High School, at a cost of £718.

Education Rate.

In May it was cheering news for the ratepayer that the financial outlook had improved, and the material benefit of the state of matters was seen when the rate for the current year was fixed, the figure showing a reduction of 2d in the £7. The education rate is now 1/11, payable half by owners and half by occupiers.

Local School Management.

As has been jocularly said by some members of the local School Management Committee, the only subject left for that subordinate body to discuss is the subject of school cleaning. Be that as it may the question of school cleaners, their duties and status and emoluments has occupied the attention of the Committee at practically every meeting throughout the year. It came up for consideration in January and was under review at the December meeting. Some changes have taken place during the year in the personnel of the Committee. The vacancies caused by the retirement of Mr R. B. Smith and of Mr Edward Spink as parents' representatives, were filled by the appointment of Mr W. L. Milne and Mr James Cant.

During the year Mr James Macintosh was appointed clerk to No. 5 School Committee in succession to the late Mr McBain.

Staffing Changes.

As has been stated, very considerable changes have taken place in the staffing of the schools within the area. Amongst the more important may be mentioned the appointment of Mr J. C. Swankie as manual instructor at Keptie School; Mrs E. D. Storrar, M.A., as head teacher at Fowls Easter School; Mr Claude A. Forster as teacher of music in the Arbroath schools; Miss Mabel Edwards to Forfar Academy; Mr R. W. West, student at Hospitalfield Art College, as art master at Forfar Academy; Mr Halliday as headmaster at Kingsmuir School; Mr John Smith as headmaster at Barry School; Mr H. L. Officer as headmaster at Carmyllie West School; Mr Robert Irvine assistant at Inverbrothock as headmaster of Forfar East School. The retirement of Mr W. W. Royal from the headmastership of Parkhouse School, after a period of 36 years meritorious service under the Arbroath School Board and Education Authority has created a vacancy which will be filled early in the New Year.

Former pupils of the High School have sustained the honour of their town in the wider sphere of University life. A noteworthy honour was bestowed upon Miss Lucy Cumming, M.A., daughter of the late Mr Edwin Cumming, manufacturer, and of Mrs Cumming, Almonry House, who had the degree of Doctor of Philosophy conferred by the University of Edinburgh.

The medallists at the High School for session 1923-24 were:—George F. Cameron (English and Science); Colin Gibson (Art.); Janie S. Hitchcock (French and Mathematics); Annabella Webster (Latin and Greek); Margaret H. Moir (Needlework). The dux and medalist at Keptie School was Helen McCartney.

Church Life and Work.

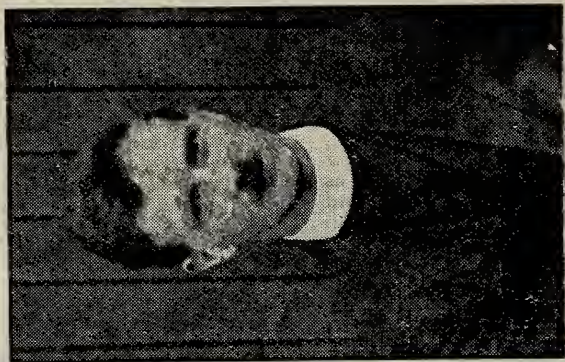

The outstanding feature in local church life during the year has been the propagation of union. On the big general aspect of this time-ous subject, the union of the two great Scottish Presbyterian churches, the local Presbyteries have had the matter frequently under review and at an important public meeting held in Ladyloan U.F. Church in April, a strong case for union was presented by the Rev. Dr Weatherhead, and Bailie Buist, Dundee.

A practical instance of local union was successfully demonstrated during the year in the amalgamation of High Street U.F. Church with East U.F. Church. The matter was first discussed in the month of May. At the end of June the Rev. T. Stark Anderson of the East U.F. Church intimated his decision to retire, and later the Rev. J. A. Tweedie of High Street U.F. Church, intimated his resignation on his appointment by the Continental Committee of the U.F. Church, to the Church's station at Algiers. At the beginning of October a vote of the members of the two churches on the proposed union was taken, when by a big majority the decision was given in favour of the union. Events moved quickly thereafter, and the utmost cordiality prevailed throughout the whole of the preliminary negotiations. On 26th October the consummation of the union took place when the combined churches worshipped in what was the East U.F. Church, but from the date of the amalgamation to be known as St Ninian's. The new congregation lost no time in setting about the task of securing a minister for the vacant charge, and events here also moving with cordial unanimity the congregation at the end of November were able to present a unanimous call to the Rev. Evan M. Campbell, U.F. Church, Ardris-haig, which was accepted. Mr Campbell, it is expected, will be inducted to the pastorate early in the new year.

Rev. J. A. Tweedie,

Ministerial Changes.

The Rev. J. A. Tweedie bade farewell to his congregation in High Street on 12th October, after a sixteen years' pastorate. Mr Tweedie was presented with parting gifts from his congregation, with whom he parted with sincere regret, and also from the members of the Boys' Brigade in which organisation he had taken a very active interest, especially in the Sunday evening pictorial services and in the annual camp outing.

A change in the pastorate of the Congregational Church took place, following the call to the Rev. Jas. Hume from Thornhill Congregational Church, Dumfries-shire. Mr Hume left Arbroath at the end of April, and in the following month the congregation forwarded a call to the Rev. T. Shanks, Forbes, which was accepted, and the induction took place on 24th June.

The Rev. T. J. Bellis from Carlisle, has taken up duty at St John's Methodist Church in succession to Rev. W. H. Baker.

During the year the Rev. Alex. Rust, M.A., Inverbrothock U.F. Church, applied for a colleague and successor, but this vacancy has not yet been filled.

In February a united missionary campaign in which all denominations took part was held in Arbroath, and in connection with work in the foreign field mention must be made of the gift of communion plate by Erskine U.F. Church, to Livingstone Church at Chitambo, Rhodesia, where Dr Wilson, a grandson of Dr Livingstone, is engaged. The plate was dedicated at an impressive service in Erskine Church in March.

During the year the Rev. Father McCurrach celebrated his semi-jubilee, the occasion being marked with the presentation of gifts from the congregation.

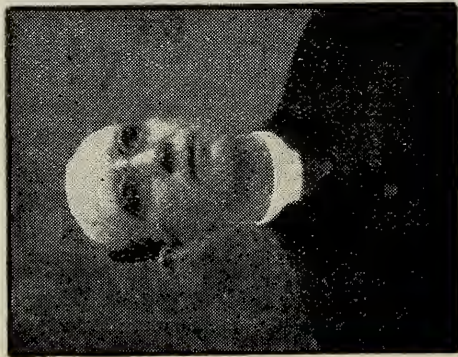

Calls and Honours.

Interesting events in connection with ministers formerly labouring in or belonging to the town were the appointment of the Rev. George A. Johnstone of Annbank Parish Church, a former assistant in Arbroath Parish Church as chaplain to the Lord High Commissioner, Mr James Brown (the first commoner to hold that office) during his residence at Holyrood for the General Assembly; the appointment of the Rev. A. Fyfe Findlay, Linlithgow, formerly of Erskine U.F. Church, Arbroath, to the Chair of Church History in the U.F. College; the jubilee of the Rev. Dr Lilley, Edinburgh, minister-emeritus of Knox U.F. Church, to whom the Arbroath and Forfar U.F. Presbytery sent its congratulations; and the Rev. C. E. Little, Hornsea, Yorks, formerly incumbent of St Mary's, Arbroath, to be honorary Canon of Durham Cathedral. The translation of Rev. James N. Dick from Coldstream to the important charge of Rutherglen West U.F. Church may also be noted; as also that of Rev. E. T. Vernon from Kinross to Willesden Presbyterian Church, London, and of Rev. T. Angus Fraser, Trinity U.F. Church, Aberdeen, to Shawlands U.F. Church, Glasgow.

As a native of Arbroath the Established Presbytery were gratified at the appointment of the Rev. Dr Cathels, Hawick, as Moderator of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, and took occasion to send him their warm congratulations.

Other events in church life and work in Arbroath were the dedication of a very beautiful stained glass window in memory of the late Dr James A. Dewar—the gift of his family—in St. Mary's Church. The window was dedicated by the Primus on Sunday, 12th October.

was redecorated, the congregation worshipping during the interval in High Street Church. The Parish Church was re-opened on the last Sunday of November on which occasion the annual Kirkin' of the Council took place, the Rev. Dr Ferguson, Dundee, officiating.

The year has seen a continuance of good work by the various missions which perform a valuable service to the community in reaching people who might not otherwise receive the uplift of spiritual ministrations. The Town Mission, under Mr Moffat, has carried on its multifarious duties from its centre in West Mill Wynd. The Coast Mission lost its missionary during the year in the removal from Arbroath of Mr George Neave, who had carried on this work for a period of 36 years. Mr Jabez Meriman was appointed in Mr Neave's place. In the Female Home Mission, Miss I. Stevenson has been appointed in room of Miss McLean resigned.

Honours and Promotions.

Arbroathians at home and abroad have added to the roll of fame of their native town in many honours that have been bestowed. First on this list must be mentioned the name of Lord Inchcape who was created Viscount in the New Year's honours list. Viscount Inchcape has had the honour of being made Knight Commander of the Star of India, on which conspicuous honour, in name of his fellow-townsmen the Provost and Town Council forwarded a congratulatory message, which his Lordship gratefully acknowledged.

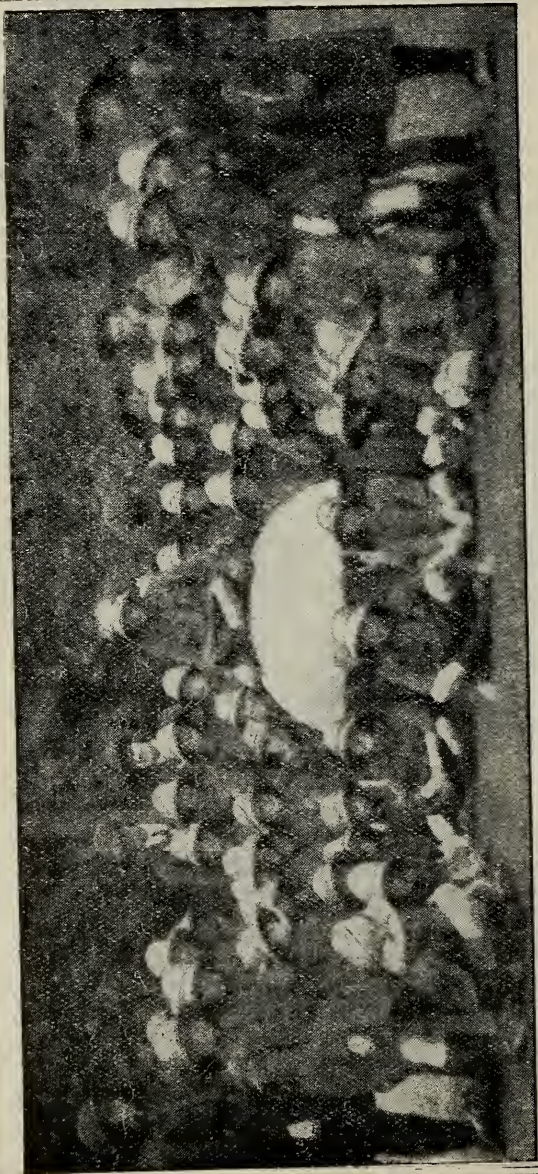

Lient.-Col. Wm. T. Prout was created Knight Bachelor; Mr Jas. Jack was appointed Member of Council of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain.

Promotions and appointments included those of Mr David Mitchell to be Detective head in the Criminal Investigation Department, Cape Town; Miss Jean C. Ronald as organist and choirmaster, Holy Rood Episcopal Church, Carnoustie; Mr J. C. Paterson, formerly accountant in Arbroath Branch of the National Bank and latterly agent at Port Gordon appointed to Invergordon; Mr J. Drummond, assessor, to a similar position in Perth district, and succeeded by Mr S. J. Marriott, Brighton; Robert Dalgetty to an important police appointment in Shanghai; Mrs Porter to the organistship of Ladyloan U.F. Church; Mr D. Weddings.

Weddings during the year included those of Mr James Crockatt Smith, Sarawak and Miss Maud Mary Carrie, a well-known local vocalist; Mr John McCormack, Hong Kong and Miss Helen A. Ogilvie; Mr James Milne, Perth and Miss Lydia Bryce; Mr Hugh Robert Mill, Newport and Miss Muriel Anderson, elder daughter of the Rev. T. Stark and Mrs Anderson; Mr Henry Law and Miss Carmena Jane Corsar, Woodville Feus; Mr Francis Davidson Jefferson Buist, Dundee and Miss Katherine Frances Robberds, daughter of the Primus and Mrs Robberds; Mr Daniel Gunn, London, and Miss Florence Mary McWattie; Mr Wm. Henderson and Miss Elizabeth Mulrean Langlands; Lieut.-Col. R. Forbes, D.S.O., M.C., assistant inspector of schools, Glasgow, to Miss Isabella Syme, Mill of Inverarity; Dr H. R. Vernon, Kintore, youngest son of Rev. E. T. and Mrs Vernon, formerly of Arbirlot, and Miss K. S. Macgregor, West View, Kinloch Rannoch; Mr Wm. Dorward, grandson of Mrs Dorward, Lochland Street, and Miss Maud Elizabeth Place, at Calgary, Alberta, Canada; Mr R. C. Myles, son of the late Mr C. Y. Myles, and Miss Phyllis McEwan. A somewhat unique ceremony was a double wedding which took place in the Imperial Hotel, when Mr Chas. J. Ruxton and Miss Laura J. Ruxton were united in marriage with Miss Margaret Berrie and Mr Frank J. Stirling respectively.

Golden wedding celebrations included those of Mr and Mrs Robt. Glass, 3 Anderson Street; Mr and Mrs Wm. R. Calder, now of Fernlea, Helensburgh; Mr and Mrs David Foreman, now of Monifieth; Mr and Mrs C. Niven Forrest, now of Christchurch, N.Z.

Music and the Drama.

That Arbroath continues to hold its own as a musical and dramatic centre is seen in the briefest survey of musical events of the past year. In January the Amateur Operatic Society appeared for four consecutive evenings in the Webster Memorial Hall in Gilbert & Sullivan's amusing opera "Patience," with a very talented caste of principals and chorus. The Choral Union in March gave a fine performance of Elgar's "King Olaf"; and the Symphony Orchestra, assisted by Mr Horace Fellowes as solo violinist and Miss Pugh, vocalist, made their second appearance before a delighted audience in the Palace Theatre in March. A second performance by the Amateur Operatic Society falls to be chronicled in the year's events occurring as it did in December, when the Society gave a most successful presentation of Gilbert & Sullivan's "Iolanthe."

Junior musical organisations have been particularly lively. The Junior Musical Society gave a successful performance of the picturesque historical operetta, "Bonnie Prince Charlie." Ladyloan U.F. Church Junior Musical Society gave a fine rendering of the cantata "The

The Girl Guides gave a very interesting concert in the Webster Memorial Hall in September in aid of the Lord Roberts' Memorial Workshops Bazaar, and St Margaret's Church children a clever presentation of the playlet, "The Gift."

Other events which may be mentioned in this category were the performance in aid of the Children's Boot Fund of Mrs Guild's party in the clever comedy "Isobel, Edward and Anne." In the first month of the year Burns' celebrations were the occasion of interesting gatherings, notably the concert arranged by the Men's Own Brotherhood, and the "haggis night" by the Y.M.C.A. Literary Club. Mention must also be made of the Town Instrumental Band, which during the year adopted a smart new uniform, and which during the summer out-of-doors, and at other seasons in the Webster Hall has provided highly appreciated recitals.

Sales and Flag Days.

As a source of revenue for church and other organisations the sale of work continues as popular and successful as ever. Flag days also, are found to be a helpful means to the end of raising funds, though these have not been so numerous as for some previous years.

The sales taken in the order in which they were held were:—Abbey Parish Church Jumble (£18); Abbey Parish Church "Bring and Buy" (£12); Ladyloan U.F. Church (£130); St Margaret's Church (£104); Inverbrothock U.F. (£72); Erskine U.F. Church Jumble (£30);

Boys' Brigade Jumble (£26); Parish Church Guild (£195); Good Templar Sale (for Grand Lodge Session entertainment fund (£37); Princes St. U.F. Church (£173); East U.F. (£55); Baptist Church (£25); Girl Guides (£18); Parish Church Women's Guild (£12); Inverbrothock Church Women's Guild (£26); Y.W.C.A. younger members (£16); S. Mary's Jumble (£23); Ladyloan U.F. Women's Guild (£38); St Margaret's Women's Guild (£28); Princes St. U.F. Church Women's Guild (£52).

Flag Days included Boys' Brigade for Camp Fund (£55); Tartan Day for Y.M.C.A. funds (£50); Lifeboat Centenary Flag Day (£53); Rose Day for unemployed in town (which has had a regrettable sequel in the Police Court); Heather Day for Children's League of Pity (£73); and Flag Day for British and Foreign Sailors' Society (£17).

Good Templary in Arbroath.

1924 was a memorable year for Good Templars in Arbroath. The town was the Mecca of members of the Order from practically every lodge in Scotland as well as delegates from English and overseas lodges in June when the fifty-fifth annual session of the Grand Lodge of Scotland was held. The session extended over a week and was attended by several distinguished Templars, among whom were Bro. Rev. Professor J. A. Robertson,

Peter Chalmers, Bearsden, who was appointed Grand Chief Templar in succession to Grand Chief Templar Munro, Leith. During the proceedings the delegates were accorded a magnificent reception by the Town Council, the function taking place in the Webster Memorial Hall. Provost Anderson presided over a large assembly. Other social functions were held during the week, such as receptions by the Forfarshire District Lodge, drives to various places of interest in the county, and the "Veteran's breakfast" which was celebrated at the usual hour, 8 a.m., in the Central Dining Rooms.

The Brotherhood Movement.

In previous years it has been customary for the Arbroath Men's Own Brotherhood to secure the services of a prominent speaker for their anniversary service, but the Committee decided that the 15th anniversary should be celebrated by two musical services. These were held in the Webster Memorial Hall in March and were conspicuously successful. The President, Mr C. C. Anderson, made reference to the session which, he said, had been a phenomenal one in the history of the Brotherhood. At the beginning of the session the Committee took a bold step when they engaged the Webster Memorial Hall for their services. The huge audiences which filled the Webster Hall Sunday after Sunday, had nevertheless, justified the venture. The Brotherhood entered upon their 1924-25 session in October with a revised constitution under which it became the Arbroath Brotherhood, with membership open to both men and women. The first speaker was Sir Robert Hutchison (then prospective Liberal candidate for the Montrose Burghs), and he was followed by several distinguished speakers, including the Right Rev. Dr W. J. F. Robberds, Primus, Bishop of Brechin; Lady Baxter, Dundee; and the Rev. Cecil M. Weeks, who founded the Brotherhood movement in Arbroath; Bailie Mrs Martin, Edinburgh, and others.

The James Keith Hall.

The opening of the James Keith Hall in January was an interesting and unique event in that it was the first social club of its kind to be instituted in Arbroath by employers for their employees. The club is for the workers of Messrs Keith & Blackman, and the opening ceremony was performed by Mr George Keith, who opened the main entrance with a silver gilt key suitably inscribed. The hall is situated at the corner of Gravesend and Panmure Street, the building formerly being the St Paul's Church. Splendidly equipped in every detail, the club has proved a great attraction to all the workers, both young and old. During the winter numerous social functions, such as whist drives, dances, etc., have been held in the hall. The first year of its inauguration has been highly successful under the Presidency of Mr Davidson, the works manager.

At Wembley.

Hundreds of Arbroathians visited the British Empire Exhibition at Wembley. The first of the big excursion parties from the town left on Tuesday evening, 19th May, and throughout the season several other organised parties made the trip. A party comprising members of the Arbroath Ambulance Corps took part in the great Empire thanksgiving service held in the Stadium at which the King and Queen, the Prince of Wales and other members of the Royal family were present. The service was conducted by the Archbishop of Canterbury, assisted by the Bishop of London. Among those who were present from this district were Mr W. Alexander, Arbroath; Mr R. Boreland, Arbroath; Mr A. Hendry (Commandant), Arbroath; Mr Milne, Forfar; Mr A. Spalding, Carnoustie; and Miss Sutherland, Carnoustie.

Horticulture and Allotments.

An event of considerable local interest during the year was the resuscitation of the Arbroath Horticultural Society's Show after a lapse of twenty-one years. The exhibition took place in the Drill Hall, Marketgate, in August, and was attended with marked success. Dr W. J. Dewar presided at the opening ceremony which was performed by Mrs Harry Corsar. The quality of the exhibits was exceptionally good, the sweet peas being an unusually strong feature.

This year the plots in the district have shown to better advantage than last year, even although the season has been a very trying one. In July the annual inspection of the various plots under cultivation by members of the Plottolders' Association took place and the judges were well pleased as a whole with the cultivation, condition, appearance and cleanliness of the ground. Mr Richard Hart, Millgate, and Mr John Mollison, Brechin Road, were each awarded 118 points, Mr Alex. Kydd, Brechin Road, being runner-up. Mr John Tasker, Rosemount, was awarded 110 points; Mr James Nicoll, Brechin Road, 109; Mr W. O. Brown, Rosemount, 104; and Mr David Clark, Keptie Road, 101.

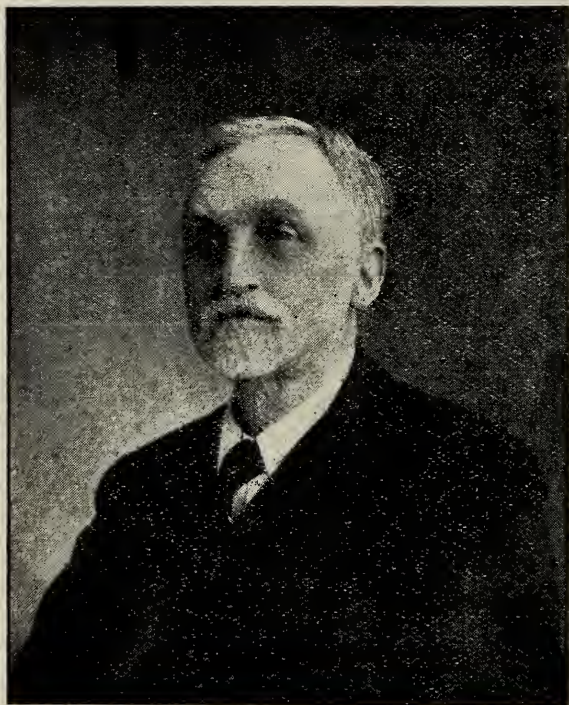

Bravery Recognised.

The bravery of Mr Alex. Penny, tailor, 6 Glover Street, in rescuing a two-year-old boy from the harbour was recognised by the Royal Humane Society and at the November meeting of the Town Council the Society's parchment certificate was presented by Provost Anderson. Mr Penny, who was associated with Arbroath Football Club in his earlier days, rescued a child from about 12 feet of water in the Harbour in August. His conduct was all the more worthy of commendation in that he is a man past the prime of life and at the time of the affair he was in the course of recovery from a serious illness.

Extended Outlook at Infirmary.

This year has witnessed a considerable extension in the outlook at the Infirmary. Although intimation of it came late in the year, reference to the magnificent gift of £2,750 by five anonymous well-wishers for the provision of a children's ward would not be out of place here for it was easily the most important and encouraging item of business that the Directors had to deal with during the year. When Mr W. W. Webster first took office as President of the Arbroath Infirmary, on the regretted demise of his brother, the late Sir Francis Webster, he called attention to the urgent need for a separate ward for children. This was not only desirable for the well-being of the children and the infants under treatment; it was essential for the comfort of the other patients, to whom, under certain conditions, with children in their ward, sleep was almost impossible. At a special meeting of the Directors held in November it was stated by Mr J. C. Dewar, Convener of the Weekly Committee, that the response to Mr Webster's suggestion had been more immediate, and more gratifying than the most sanguine amongst them ever hoped for. Five well-wishers of the Infirmary who wished to remain anonymous had made the offer to subscribe sums amounting to £2,750 for the erection of a sick children's ward. Following upon this most gratifying intimation, a committee consisting of Mr J. C. Dewar, Bailie Milne, Messrs R. C. Walker, J. Cathcart Christie, and J. Kydd, and the President, Secretary and Treasurer was appointed to consider the matter. The Committee later reported to the Directors and desired to place on record their warm appreciation of the handsome gift. In view of the increase in the present administration expenses which would be entailed by the erection of the proposed new ward, the Committee also suggested a special guarantee fund of a certain number of subscribers of £10 each for a period of five years. This minute was adopted and ex-Provost Ruth-erford Thomson, Mr A. R. Duncan, Parkhill, Dr W. J. Dewar, and Mr E. Simpson were added to the Committee who are to report further to the Directors when a plan has been agreed upon.

New President.

At the March meeting of the Directors Mr W. W. Webster (as has been mentioned), was appointed President in succession to his brother, the late Sir Francis Webster, to whose work on behalf of the Infirmary high tributes were paid. Sir Francis was a member of the Board for over forty years, he having become a director in 1880. His long record of keen and eager service to the institution whose best interests he had at heart is well known to all.

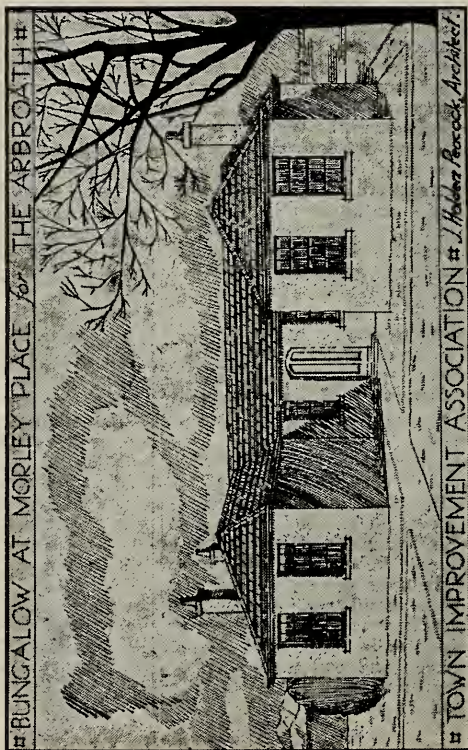

The Nurses' Home at the Infirmary was completed in March. An effort organised by the Infirmary Auxiliary Committee with Mrs D. W. Morgan, Ethie Mains, as convener, in the way of instituting an egg week in Arbroath in April was marked with considerable success. The receiving depot at the corner of Commerce Street was open for one week and 823 dozen eggs were gifted. Good Friday was specially set apart as Children's Day and no fewer than 775 eggs were given. At the annual meeting in June, the Hon. Treasurer, Mr W. J. Rollo, stated that the income of the Infirmary had amounted to £7,536 (including a balance of £1,062 from the previous year). Subscriptions totalled £1,614 which was a long way short of the sum collected the previous year. The expenditure amounted to £6,056 and there was a balance in hand at the close of the year of £1,480. There was a shortage on the Convalescent Home account at the end of the year to the extent of £72 8s 5d. During the year legacies, etc., to the Infirmary and Convalescent Home amounting to £10,435 had been received and added to the Endowment Account.

The valuation of the Infirmary was increased during the year from £290 to £350. An appeal made by the Directors against this was dismissed by the Burgh Valuation Appeal Court. At a meeting of the Directors it was pointed out that the valuation of £350 was equal to £5 17s 6d per bed, while the valuation of any of the neighbouring institutions did not exceed, in proportion, £5 per bed. Indeed, other Infirmaries and hospitals of a similar size were valued at from £2 to £4 per bed. It was left to the Finance Committee to take any action next year that they thought desirable.

Industrial Affairs.

The year 1924 will not go down in the annals of the history of Arbroath as a good year, nor even a moderately good year, as far as general trade is concerned, but the closing weeks have been filled with brighter hopes, and certain confident anticipations that things are likely to move early in the New Year. Certain it is that the worst of the depression is now over and with a more stable government great things are possible and it is everyone's earnest desire that great things will be achieved.

The Staple Industry.

As far as the staple trade of the town is concerned nothing very fresh can be written. 1924 has been very much like its immediate predecessors and no great orders have been booked. The spinning end of the trade has been particularly slack, and in no mill have all the spindles been working. So long as conditions in Russia remain as they are, just so long will conditions here remain in their present unsatisfactory state. More has been done in the cloth end of the trade and for several months most firms have been comparatively busy. Orders continue to come in, true they are not large orders, but still sufficient to give employment to a fair proportion of operatives. Government surplus stocks are now pretty well exhausted, so that naturally there is an increased demand for canvas of all descriptions, and in consequence spinners' stocks of yarn, which were considerable, are gradually being used up.

Other Trades.

The engineering trade, generally speaking, has showed a distinct improvement, and the three large local firms have been working full time; indeed, in certain cases overtime has been the rule. The prospects for the coming year are quite good, and as a community Arbroath has reason to be thankful that the engineering trade has revived as it has done.

The bootmaking trade is at a very low ebb and so far signs of improvement are still lacking. The Hill Road Factory (Messrs Colin Grant, Ltd.) closed down some time ago, and there is no prospect of its being re-opened in the immediate future, which shows a very unsatisfactory state of things. Abbey Works have been working on short time all the year, and as trade is, there is no reason to expect any improvement for some time to come.

Building.

A good deal of building has been done during the year, and more is likely to follow. Several bungalows have been erected in the west end of the town, in particular one for the Town Improvement Association which was undertaken partly to provide work for unemployed and partly to increase the housing amenities of that part of the town. Situated at the corner of Nolt Loan and Roseberry Place, it is an attractive house, and was purchased immediately on completion. The Association have passed plans for a second bungalow, which will be proceeded with early in the New Year.

In addition to these may be mentioned a bungalow for Mr Elder in Salisbury Place; a villa for Mr W. H. Alexander in Viewfield Road; new garage for Mr Cromarty in Bank Street; two tenement houses for Mr S. Colville in Green St.; additional accommodation to the administrative block at Public Health Hospital; erection of dry-cleaning and dyeing additions at Mr Manson's Steam Laundry at Gallowden; and considerable extensions to the Electric Works in South Grimsby have been made to the engine and boiler houses and also in North Grimsby where a large cooling tower has been erected for dealing with their new condensing apparatus rendered necessary by large additions to their engine power.

Associated with these building in prospect may be mentioned, the laying out of a new 40 feet street to be known as Annesley Road, leading off Arbirlot Road, between Denley and Dulwich. This roadway is to be of the boulevard type with 10 feet side walks planted with trees, and when completed will add considerably to the amenities in that attractive quarter of the town.

Fifty-five minor warrants have also been granted during the year by the Dean of Guild Court, for various lesser additions and improvements.

Considerable improvements have also been carried out on the footpaths in various parts of the town. The amenities at both the High and Low Commons have been added to by the removal of the stonewalls and the substitution of concrete posts and a single iron tube rail so that an uninterrupted view can now be had of the links and seascape both south and west.

In various parts of the town old houses are being reconstructed and there is ample opportunity for more activity in that direction. Messrs Douglas Fraser & Sons, Ltd., made a handsome addition to their engineering works by building a new three storey building at Stobcross, while they have also erected a new warehouse in Robert Street.

The Arbroath West Port Association have also been extending their activities and have built a very handsome frontage to their central establishment.

Records of Progress.

Under gas we have already referred to the extraordinary increase in the output of gas, notwithstanding our restricted activity in almost every branch of industry. The general idea used to be that no safer index of the prosperity of any industrial community was to be found than the record of the consumption of light and power as indicated by the output of gas and electricity. This method of competition would seem to demand reconsideration, for while we all know that our industrial conditions have been far from satisfactory for an extended period, judged by the record of output at both power and light producing undertakings we would come to the conclusion that we were never more prosperous. The Gas Works show an increase of over two million cubic feet during the year, while the output at the Electric Works show an increase of one and three quarter million units. No doubt the community are demanding better lighting conditions and great improvements have been made in almost every shop in the community. The same may be said as to our streets, and very considerable extensions in this direction have been made in the suburbs of the town. But it will be a little disconcerting if we discover that our satisfaction with these increases is illusory.

The trade of shopkeeping has improved somewhat as the year has advanced and the Christmas trade has been very brisk.

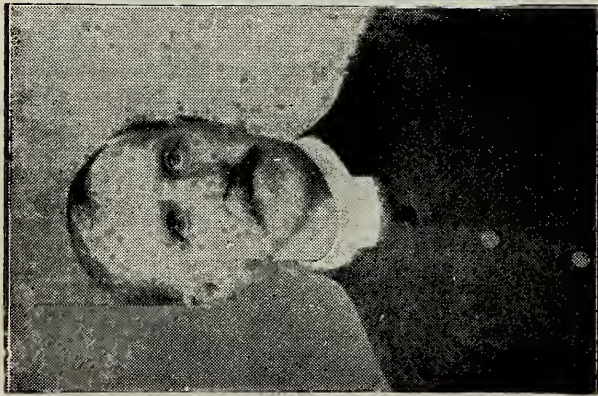

Arbroath undoubtedly has passed through four arduous years, but 1924 has certainly not been the worst. While every year closes on a note of hope and expectancy, it is generally believed that there are better grounds for that opinion this year than there have been for some years past.

Obituary.

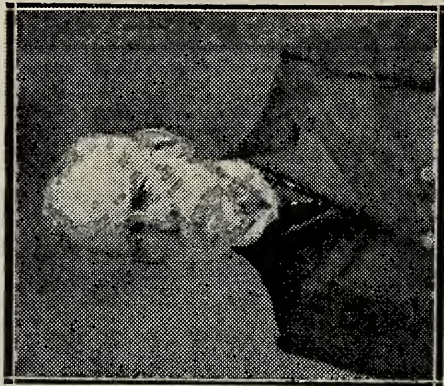

In closing the review of the past year one has to remember regretfully the many faces which have passed away from this earthly scene. The list may not be so long as in some years, but it contains the names of men and women who played a big part in the development of the town and in its many interests. Mention has already been made of the loss to the community by the death of Sir Francis

The late J. G. Leslie.

The late Rev. T. S. Anderson.

The late Dr J. A. Dewar.

Webster. Another name which will be long remembered in Arbroath and district where he was known and beloved by all classes is that of Dr James A. Dewar, whose death took place at the advanced age of 87 on 2nd May. Another who occupied a prominent place on many public boards was Mr James R. Aitken, whose death at the age of 71, following a considerable period of ill-health took place in April. Mr Aitken was chairman of the Burgh Insurance Committee, chairman of the Arbroath Liberal Association, and occupied a leading position in connection with the Ancient Order of Foresters, and of various other organisations. As business men cut off at a comparatively early age the death of Mr A. W. Porteous, baker and confectioner, at the age of 51; of Mr Thomas Taylor, manager of the West Port Association, aged 49 years; of Mr R. K. Gould, Newgate Inn—a guide philosopher and friend to the fishing community—at the age of 57; of Mr James G. Leslie, whose tragic death by accident at Elliot is still fresh in the mind of the town, is felt with peculiar regret. Others whose names may be added to those who were well-known in the town from which they have now passed away were: Wm. Beatts, of the Fire Brigade (62); Mr Wm. Shepherd, ironfounder (79); Miss Stiven, Keptie Angle; Mrs Wm. Kydd and Miss Jane Smith Barnett, Idle Hour, Hillend Road (sisters, who died within 12 hours of each other); John Blues, miller, Arbirlot; Mrs Grant of Woodside; John F. Greig, 12 Ann Street; John Petrie, 22 Applegate (56); David Fairlie, late foreman cleansing (81); Mrs Ewing, draper; Wm. Fraser, Cross Mill Wynd, formerly proprietor of the coffee-house; Mr Alexander Dickson, A.L.C.M., formerly organist Inverbrothock Church; Miss J. M. Young, Hospitalfield; Miss Rollo, Aunbank; Mrs Calder, Heathcote, Arbirlot Road; James Leith, grocer; William Swankie, skipper; Capt. Jas. A. Stewart, Osborne Terrace, retired shipmaster (72); David Kerr, butcher (65); George S. Kenneth, baker (50); W. B. Lamond, artist, Auchmithie.

Amongst those who claimed Arbroath as their mother town but who found their life work beyond her borders may be mentioned John Adam (69), Parramatta South, New South Wales; Alex. Ruxton (79), Ludlow, Mass.; Rev. Charles Swanson, Cray U.F. Church, Glen Shee, a former assistant at Ladyloan U.F. Church; Mr A. H. Mills, Touchwood, Sask., eldest son of the Rev. A. Mills, Colliston; Private John Clark, 1st Black Watch, on way home from India; D. Buchan Young (84), artist and scene painter; Mrs D. Corsar, Cults, formerly of Kelly Castle; John B. Craig (74), Rhode Island; Rev. Crawford Smith, South U.F. Church, Monifieth; Dr Forbes Fraser, C.B.E., F.R.C.S., Bath, younger son of the late Mr Henry Fraser, manufacturer; ex-Provost David Corsar Blair (64), Bridge of Allan, grandson of the late David Corsar, manufacturer; William Smith, "Balzeordie" (82), a prominent figure on public boards in the county; Dr Henry Craig Wallace (22), son of Mr J. G. Wallace headmaster, Golspie (the result of a motor accident in Co. Durham); Sir Frederick Wm. Duke (60), eldest son of the late Dr Wm. Duke, St Vigeans Parish Church, and eminent in the Indian Civil Service; David H. Nicol (70), Ernest Street; Mrs Peterkin, wife of Dr Peterkin, Forfar, daughter of the late ex-Provost A. D.
